

Corick House Hotel & Spa

History of Afternoon Tea

Afternoon Tea was first introduced in the UK by the 7th Duchess of Bedford in 1840.

The Duchess would become Hungry at around 4pm but the evening meal in the household was served fashionably late at 8 o'clock.

The Selection for the Duchess was a pot of Tea & a light snack served by the staff in her Boudoir.

Menu

A Selection of freshly cut finger sandwiches

Egg & Cress

Salmon & Lemon Mayo

Coronation Chicken

Ham, Cheese & Mustard

Warm Corick House Scones with Devon Clotted
Cream & Seasonal Preserve

Homemade Cakes & Pastries

Selection of the finest local Herbal Tea

Traditional Afternoon Tea £19.50

Sparkling Afternoon Tea £24.50

Corick House Hotel & Spa

Terms & Conditions

Please be advised that food prepared here may contain certain food allergens. If you suffer from a food allergy or a special dietary requirement please inform us at the time of booking.

- (1) Full Payment is required at time of Booking.
- (2) Bookings are only confirmed once full payment is received, this payment is non-refundable and non-transferable
- (3) Bookings can be made every hour on the hour or $\frac{1}{2}$ hour- tables are booked for 2 hours
- (4) For group bookings over 10 guests, a £5.00 per person deposit is required, final numbers are due 3 days prior to the reservation date with full payment from the organiser.

